

Why the name "AngelSugar"?

Hi! My name is Stacy Soward, and I am the owner & director of AngelSugar Child Development Center. The "AngelSugar" name is a derivative of the nicknames of our two daughters - Sarah and Abby. Sarah has been my little "Angel" from birth. She has a birthmark by her eye, which I have always told her was because, "An angel kissed you when you were born, making you extra special, which left an Angel mark on you!" Sarah is now 18 years old, and is attending the University of New Orleans, majoring in Forensic Accounting. Abby is 10, and from birth she has always gotten bitten by bugs way more than others! I have always told her it's because she is soooooooo sweet that she must be "made of Sugar!" So Abby is my little Sugar Sugar! She is currently living with her dad in Louisiana.

Thanks!

Stacy
